

Since broadcasting companies use the public airwaves for free, and since my taxes go towards this use, I'm pretty aggravated when one company pushes their viewpoints and interest above all others. Guess who I'm talking about? Yep, Sinclair Broadcasting. If they want to show two films, one pro-Bush and one pro-Kerry, that's fine with me, otherwise, bring the ax down on these media hogs.